JANESVILLE OVER TOP IN LOAN DRIVE

Co. M in N. Y.; Reception Planned

HOME FOLKS READY FOR WELCOME

TELEGRAPH WIRES HOT TO-DAY FROM JANESVILLE SOLDIERS IN EAST.

MAYOR ENTHUSED OVER RETURN

Effort Being Made to Have Company Discharged from Camp En Masse.

A large number of Company M men ported at Hoboken last night. Whether the entire 128th Infantry arrived could not be learned today but telegrams from Janesville boys, members of the company, choked the telegraph wires this morning. Plans for a monstrous welcome are already being formed.

"We'll have to give them the greatest welcome the city has ever seen," exclaimed Mayor Thomas E. Welsh at the city hall this morning when informed that at least a part of the Janesville company had reached the states.

"I'm strong for big doings," said the mayor. "We'll show them that we appreciate their work. We'll have to get busy right away and be all ready for them when they get here."

W. E. Mathews, chairman of the Welcome Home Committee of the Chamber of Commerce was in Madison today and it could not be learned what the latest plans of the committee were but it is known that some elaborate ideas are being considered.
One of the most important is the effort being made through military channels to have the Co. M men discharged in body at Camp Grant and for them to return home en masse. This is to permit Janesville to stage a big turnout, possibly have the day declared a holiday.

Other cities throughout the state are planning on closing stores, factories and all business places when their organizations in the 32nd division return.

DELANVAN MAN DEAD; WIFE INJURED WHEN TRAIN SMASHES AUTO

(By Special Correspondent.) DeLavan, May 5.—Charles Goff, 23, died at the sanitarium at 4 a. m. today and his wife lies there in a serious condition, the result of an auto being struck by the 5:50 C. and St. P. R. passenger train at second street crossing last night.
The young couple were hurled more than 20 feet into the air when the automobile, driven by Mr. Goff, was struck. Witnesses of the tragedy, say, Mrs. Goff had driven to the con-dormery a short while before to bring her husband home. The car was prepared for the night before.
Mrs. Goff suffered internal injuries numerous lacerations, abrasions at the neck and arms. Attendants at the sanitarium this morning reported that her condition was hopeful.

5 Yank Correspondents to Be at Peace Meeting

"Melting Pot" Heroes Home

(By Associated Press.)
New York, May 5.—Twenty-five thousand men drove from 50 nationalities among the Polyglot population of New York, who less than two years ago were engaged in the most ferocious of the battles of the Argonne forest and a million or more fellow citizens frenetically cheered them as they marched up Fifth avenue as the only division in the American army entirely from one city and it included a greater number than any other division of men of foreign birth.

Of all the divisions that fought under Pershing in France, none was more democratic, army officers said, and even the commander, Maj. Gen.
Robert Alexander, decorated for bravery on the field of battle, rose from the ranks. The 45 officers and 112 privates who were awarded the distinguished service cross included all nationalities and untold, hastily trained soldiers, many of whom never before knew a real patriotism for their adopted country, proved their stalwart Americanism under the unit officers said justified the "melting pot."

CITY TO HAVE CLINIC

8,000 Recruits For Service In Siberia Wanted

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, May 6.—Orders were issued today by the war department for the recruiting of 8,000 men to serve as replacement troops for American soldiers now in Siberia. A replacement detachment will be organized at San Francisco and the troops will be sent forward in units of 500 each as they become assembled.

Sinn Feiners Encouraged; Un- ionists Indignantly Protest Wilson's "Meddling."

(By Associated Press.)
Dublin, Monday, May 5.—Michael J.
Ryan, Philadelphia, and former governor Edward F. Dunne of Illinois, representatives of the Irish societies in the United States, arrived here tonight from Belfast.

Upon arriving at the hotel the Americans addressed the assembly, dwelling upon the objects of the war and claiming the right of self-determination and a republican form of government for the Irish people.

London, May 6.—The visit of representatives of American-Irish societies to Ireland is causing great interest in this country. The visit is being watched with keen interest and the motives of the trip are

7 PERISH IN FLAMES IN COLUMBUS FLATS

(By Associated Press.)
Columbus, O., May 6.—Eight persons are known to have perished, and a dozen were injured, in the most severe thunderstorm of the season.
A six story apartment house in the downtown section early this morning was consumed by fire. The fire started in the basement and spread rapidly. The fire started in the

Fights Bolshevism

Mrs. Reginald De Koven.

Mrs. Reginald De Koven, wife of the well-known composer, has actively enlisted in the National Security League's nation-wide campaign against the menace of bolshevism in this country. One plan brought forth in this effort is the prospective formation of a national high school house to disseminate throughout the high schools of the land standard forms for patriotic and civic study.
The preliminary basis of this plan is a report of the present methods in certain schools of New York city made by Mrs. De Koven who has been investigating them.

PEACE —and— WAR

Preparations have virtually been completed for the presentation of the peace terms to the German delegates at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow.

Today is expected to witness the completion of the draft which will be read at the plenary session this afternoon, primarily for the purpose of informing the delegates of the minor points as to the details of the document which the Germans will be asked to sign.

With Premier Orlando and Prime Minister Sonnino of Italy on their way to Paris from Rome it seems probable that they will be present at the historic meeting at Versailles Wednesday.

Nothing official has been made public as to the agreement under which Italy has consented to resume participation in the peace conference. A report, reaching London, however, declares it is proposed to make Rome a neutral port for a period of two years after which time it is to be turned over to Italy.

German newspapers are printing reports from Versailles that the German representatives have served notice on the allies that further delay in the presentation of the peace terms will result in the Germans leaving for Berlin. Another report emanating from Berlin states that German ministers, Landberg and Giesberg, members of the enemy delegation, have left Versailles but that "peace negotiations will continue."

There has been no intimation from Paris that the Germans were demanding immediate action or that any of the delegates had left and it is probable that the reports received in Berlin were intended for "home consumption."

Meanwhile the league of nations has proceeded with its organization. Stephen Pichon, the French foreign minister, yesterday was elected chairman of the provisional organization and Sir Eric Drummond assumed his duties as acting secretary general.

The government of Finland will receive recognition from the allies pursuant to a decision reached in Paris by the council of foreign ministers, according to report.

The power of the soviet government in Budapest seems to be crumbling rapidly. Reports agree that anarchy reigns in the city with many executions being carried out by the soviet leaders. Czech troops are said to be only 20 miles away.

With the circle of anti-bolshevik forces rapidly closing in from the southeast, east, northeast and north, the bolshevik government of Russia also appears to be hard pressed. Russian and Finnish troops operating east of Lake Ladoga have cut off the residual soviet forces further north and have severed communications between Moscow and the Kola peninsula.

Indiana-Kentucky Troops Back in U. S.

New York, May 6.—Twelve officers and 414 men comprising the signal corps of the 113th field battalion, 38th division, (Indiana and Kentucky), arrived here today from Bordeaux.

ANTI-VENERY FIGHT TO BE LAUNCHED

COUNCIL APPROPRIATES $500 FOR HEALTH WORK HERE.

HENIKA PRESENTS PLAIN SITUATION

Shows Danger to Future Gen- eration if Disease is Not Checked.

Janesville went on record last night as being the second city in Wisconsin to establish a clinic for the treatment of venereal diseases when without a moment's hesitation the council appropriated $500 to carry on the work under the auspices and directions of the State board of health which carries with it financial support from both the federal and state governments.

It is expected, though not certain, that the clinic will be established in one of the vacant offices on the second floor of the city hall. An expert physician furnished by the state will be in charge.

Aldermen first frowned at but quickly headed with rapt attention the remarks of Dr. P. W. Henika, deputy state health officer and a member of the state board of health and he won them completely with facts and figures of the wide prevalence of the dreaded, highly contagious venereal diseases.

Dr. Henika did not mince matters.
His facts came straight from the shoulder and when a spade was a spade he called it a spade.

Scarcely Camouflage Disease
"Camouflage never got results in the matter of venereal diseases," he said.
"The state realizes this and it has planned an advertising campaign, moving pictures to be given separately for men and women, posters and newspaper publicity existing before the people the extreme danger to prevent future generations from venereal disease."

"Venereal diseases," said the state health board, "overshadows cancer and tuberculosis."
"Do you gentlemen know," he asked,
"that of the first million men called in the draft army a total of 12 percent of the white males were convicted of venereal disease? That would mean one in every 40. Wisconsin sent 60,000 of her boys to war.
Just think of it, 96,000, and realize that population of soldiers represents the number of venereal cases in Wisconsin."

War Brings Realization

"If such cases were placarded it would mean a quarantine sign for the same number of homes in Wisconsin as so proudly display a service flag."
"It was the war that brought the realization upon us of the thousands of cases of syphilis, gonorrhea and the other forms prevalent. Twelve percent was the figure of the first million among American boys but when 1918, American doctors and American genius had reduced this to one percent. The quacks and patent medicines didn't. It was the war that brought us face to face with the dreaded disease."

BUSINESS PROSPECTS IMPROVED IN APRIL

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, May 6.—During April business prospects improved, retail trade increased in volume, prices apparently assumed a more stable position and business generally was considered on a stronger and better footing, says a federal reserve board statement issued today.

In the first federal reserve district the impression is becoming general that no lower price level will be established at least for some time. This is having the effect of encouraging buyers to place orders with more confidence and manufacturers are going ahead in a satisfactory manner.

American Exhibition in Christiana Promising

(By Associated Press.)
Christiana, Monday, May 6.—The American exhibition to be held here this autumn promises to be a great success. Space has been reserved for 120 Norwegian importers who distribute goods from 300 firms.

HOUSING HEAD LIL

Miss Mary M. Stewart, head of the housing bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, is confined to her home with illness.

Another Matrimonial Shock!

Maurice Maeterlinck and his young bride.

Maurice Maeterlinck, the Belgian playwright, recently started the world when he married Renee Dahon, of Nice, France, who was very popular in Paris as an actress. Maeterlinck was thought to be happily married to the first Mrs. Maeterlinck and this recent romance was a shock. Rumor has it that the under was in the making eight years ago. The new Mrs.
Maeterlinck is but twenty-six while her husband is fifty-eight.

ECONOMIC ISOLATION IS GERMANY'S ALTERNATIVE; CHINA IS DISSATISFIED

(By Associated Press.)
Paris, May 6.—The complete economic isolation of Germany is being considered by the Council of Foreign Ministers in the event that Germany refuses to sign the peace treaty.

Orders have been issued to specialists in Austria-Hungary subjects to rush their reports so that the treaty with Austria can be considered during the 15 days that the Germans will be discussing the terms of peace to be submitted to them Wednesday.

Peace by June 1

It now seems to be quite possible that the peace treaty with Germany will be disposed of before June 1, a member of the American delegation said tonight.

The Chinese delegation is displaying great dissatisfaction with the announced settlement of the Shantung problem. While the Chinese will not refuse to sign the peace treaty it appears likely they will sign it with reservations.

No actual compromise of the Adriatic problem has been arranged with the Italian delegates now on their way back to Paris, so far as is known here tonight.

Members of the Italian delegation stated today that dispatches in German newspapers suggesting that Italy had broken with the entente have made it imperative for the Italians to demonstrate that they are still loyal to the allies.

Belgians to Sign Treaty

The decision of the Belgian crown council that the Belgian delegates should sign the treaty, as Belgium has been promised a satisfactory arrangement of her war debts, was another development of an auspicious day.

President Wilson, in addition to attending the meeting of the Council three in the morning and going to Versailles to look over the arrangements for the meeting with the Germans there Wednesday, visited the Hotel De Crillon in the afternoon and held conferences with the entire Am-

Still Waiting for Good Weather to Make Flight

(By Associated Press.)
New York, May 6.—The proposed start today of the navy department's trans-Atlantic flight by way of Halifax was postponed shortly after 3 o'clock this morning because of adverse weather conditions.

The departure would be made before 10 a. m. on the first day that favorable weather conditions were reported, Commander John H. Towers said.

Buenos Aires Strikes at Anarchist Heart

(By Associated Press.)
Buenos Aires, Monday, May 6.—The chief of police has issued an order forbidding further anarchistic meetings, either in the open air or behind closed doors, the publication of sensational newspapers and literature and the utterance of language insulting to the country or flag.

$825,950 IS BOND TOTAL AT 3 O'CLOCK

HEAVY OVERSUBSCRIP- TION IS PREDICTED BY LOAN CHIEFS.

COUNTY WILL HIT GOAL THURSDAY

Center First Township to Complete Quota—Headquarters
Open Until Saturday.

THE GLAD NEWS

Janesville's quota $825,000
Subscribed to 3 P.
M. .... $25,950

Over-subscription $950

BULLETIN

Fire Chief Murphy and all his aides, with fire wagons and whistles, turned out in celebration of Janesville's over subscription of the "tours" downtown and residential streets at 3 o'clock.

Janesville hurdled over the top in the Victory Loan campaign at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

With complete subscriptions at that hour totaling $825,950, or an oversubscription of $950, the glad news of the fact that campaign headquarters to the factories and churches which in turn announced to citizens whistles and bells that the top had been reached.

The county will go over the top by Thursday, loan chiefs stated today.
When returns from the flying squadron which visited the rural sections today are totaled up this evening it is predicted that the county will be close to the $2,427,500 quota.

Open Until Saturday
The county campaign ends officially Saturday simultaneously with the closing of the national drive. Because of the fact that campaign headquarters here is a county office it will be kept open until Saturday to make final computations and submit complete reports to state headquarters.

The same gall which has characterized the city campaign throughout was noticeable today. There was no spectacular or whirlwind finish. It was just the steady plugging which put the city over the top today.
The fact that Janesville reached its quota, $825,000, on the eighth day of the campaign proves conclusively that workers were on the job every day, $100,000 being the subscription every day.

Over-Subscriptions Expected.

The wheels of the great organization which carried on the work so successfully never faltered. There were no lull moments when gloom prevailed at headquarters campaign heads never doubted but what the goal would be reached long before obtaining the final day for subscriptions aggregating Center First Over.

The town of Center earns the honor of being the first township in the Janesville banking district to be officially over the top. The maximum quota, $22,500, was reached yesterday afternoon. The complete compilation has not yet been reported.

To the following men, members of the Committee of Twenty of that township, credit is due for the showing made:

P. W. Wenzel, William Drefahl, Herman Benish, W. C. Miller, Herman F. Wilkie, John P. Gold, Smith, William Beyer, B. W. Sny- der, Dan Conway, John Fisher, George Brown, John Volsberg, J. E. Hawk, J. K. Benish, J. S. Roberts, Frank Benish, Eli Carl, Ole C. Bergh, Oscar A. Brown, Chas. H. Whitmore.

Snow Again; Spring Backs Out

Bismarck, N. D., May 6.—Snow, which began falling here last night continued today, melting as it falls.
Mandan and Devils Lake also reported light snow.

Winter is Back

Ely, Minn., May 6.—Winter returned to the Minnesota ranges today. Snow fell heavily throughout the Height 'O Land. In Ely five inches of snow fell and remained on the ground, and it is reported similar conditions prevail in other parts of the iron belt.

WIDOW-PUBLISHER CLASH OVER PICTURE

Chicago, May 5.—Mrs. Vera Trepagnier, 80-year-old widow, who shot and killed Paul Voland, in his office yesterday, talked today of the shooting, the cause of which was a miniature of George Washington.
"In my state, men may lie, gamble, cheat in business, but they do not shoot," she said. "I cannot deny shooting Paul Voland; he choked me. I do not remember firing, but I recall his saying, 'You've killed me.' I had no choice. I felt, of the only dear thing left to me. He had evaded me for two years."
She said she was married to Ellis Trepagnier, New Orleans, a sugar planter, who died following the loss of his fortune. Friends obtained a position for her in Washington where she met Voland. He was reputed a connoisseur on art and she studied art in her early days she showed him his miniature whose history he knew. He wanted the publisher's rights of reproduction and they reached an agreement as to royalties. Thereafter she said she could get no satisfaction from the publisher.
It became known today that the art publisher who owned the 45-cent picture of the young woman of 22. His wife and he had separated some time ago.

WORK TO OFFSET DANGER OF LOSING EMPLOYMENT OFFICE

Members of the Labor board, J. P. Cullen, L. A. Avery, and J. J. Dulin, and three aldermen, LeRoy Horn, Ensign H. Ransom, and Emil Paulz were scheduled to go in session this afternoon with a representative of the Wisconsin industrial commission on the matter of the Janesville employment agency. L. A. Avery, addressing the council last night, said that the Janesville was in danger of losing the bureau unless some immediate action was forthcoming.

The council immediately took steps to retain the service and Mayor Thomas E. Wash selected the three aldermen to meet with the labor board and Mr. Jacobson of the industrial commission. Mr. Avery told the council that the bureau cannot be affiliated with the Chamber of Commerce or any other organization. This necessitates separate quarters. He told them that the bureau and regulations governing the bureau and informed them that neither the postoffice building or the city hall met the requirements, though the latter had room and rent would have been free. Peter L. Myers has leased the old quarters of the bureau in the Myers block to the Federated Women's club which was perfectly legitimate under the terms of his contract with the board. The offices in the Myers block, at the corner of East Milwaukee street and South Bluff street were particularly adapted to the work and regulations of the law on labor matters. This confirmation appealed to the council as would a fifth wheel on a wagon in that the regulations demanded outside entrances. When the government maintained the bureau it served Janesville manufacturers and employers together, the entire city, and the county. Edgerton, Evansville and other places. Later its boundaries were extended and the northern half of Walworth county was included.

Edgerton News

Edgerton, May 5.—A wireless message was received yesterday from Paul Janson while at sea on the cruiser George Washington, that they expected to land Monday and come directly to Camp Grant. There are about six other Edgerton boys on the ship with him. The Monday club met at Mrs. F. O. Holts' home yesterday. Light refreshments were served. Mr. Lemoraux, the manual training teacher at the high school is ill and was confined to his home yesterday. Word was received by telegraph that Emil Summerfeldt and Fred Schaeffelt landed at Philadelphia Saturday and are now at Camp Dix, New Jersey. They expect to be transferred to Camp Grant soon. Miss Larson was absent from her classroom at the high school yesterday afternoon because of illness. The K. P. team from Edgerton went to Whitewater last evening to work in the third degree at the Knights of Pi Kappa lodge there. Miss Georgia Gifford left for Minneapolis last evening on the 7:40 train. The Aid society of the M. E. church will meet at the church Wednesday afternoon at 2. It is desired that all members should be present at this meeting, because of the great amount of work to be done. Ray Paul, who is on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad was at home yesterday for a short time. Mrs. Raymond Saunders died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Broke, for hip about six weeks ago. She never recovered from the effect of the fall. She leaves three sons and two daughters, Charles of Iakabau, Harry, Madison; Clarence of Washington; Mrs. Charles Randolph, Lodi, Calif., and Mrs. John Spencer, Albion. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 at the home of Mrs. Broke. Rev. Sayre officiating. Interment will take place in the Albion cemetery. A telegram was received early this morning that Edward Short had just returned from overseas. He will be stationed at Camp Merritt, New Jersey. Mrs. W. Doty went to Madison yesterday to undergo an operation for gall stones. Willard B. Doty is agent for the Gazette in Edgerton. He will see that one of his carriers delivers the paper at 9 o'clock each evening each week. Call him up or see him in order to make sure that you receive the Gazette. Modern Campers. ### COUNCIL NOTES

The meeting last night was held in the regular council chambers, just renovated with paint and wallpaper, and furniture. For some time past the council sessions have been held in the municipal court room.

Robert J. Cunningham, law partner of the brother, Roger G. Cunningham, was last night appointed by the council as assistant to the latter, city attorney, without compensation. The city's legal aid now stands at the having of an assistant because of the great amount of work arising during the past several months.

Quite a gallery attended the session. What the big attraction was council members did not know. Curb and gutter was ordered in on Highland avenue between Washington street and Oak Hill avenue. The meeting went into session at 8:05 and continued for two hours and a quarter. Residents in the neighborhoods of parks were requested by the council last night to report immediately to the city engineer any vandalism in the city's beauty spots. Much trouble has been met with lately with small boys destroying bubbling drinking fountains, flower beds and park furniture, and it was determined to get away from the constant expense and trouble arising.

Lengthy communications were a feature. City attorney Cunningham had a college freshman's composition on the high school bond ordinance. To get it "according to Mr. Hoyle, must have necessitated several hours to a couple of stenographers and a flock of typewriters. Alderman Cronin refused to recommend the ordinance as it was not personally inspected the properties. He will report at the next meeting. At ten o'clock there was a general rush to dispose of a large amount of business. A one year extension to the expired permit to the St. Christian church to permit to frame a structure within the fire limits was approved. F. E. Sadler, clerk of the church corporation, in his communication requesting the extension said that the congregation planned a permanent and fireproof structure to conform with fire regulations to be built in the near future, possibly 1920. Original plans were to erect a temple of the church but divers conditions did not permit the work to be started.

Alderman Dulin might have introduced the Janesville Electric company as an orchestra and their number, "Lights Out, March." Anybody caring to see the new taxicab ordinance can do so by visiting City Clerk Victor E. Hemming at his office. The session last night was the sixth in five weeks. Aldermen are earning their money. Reports of the board of education, Police Department, plumbing inspector, municipal court, the annual report of the city treasurer and the board of public works were received and placed on file. The purchase of a light motor for the use of the latter body was recommended. Alderman Dulin lit his fireworks after ten o'clock. Whether he had the speech "sputtered" before hand or whether it was occasioned by one of the electric lights in the chandelier over the clerk's desk burning out, he failed to state. Dr. Henika, the state board of health deputy who spoke favoring the venereal clinic for the city was elected at the special session of the council in February. He was elected for the year $500 for the city's share for the station. City Attorney Roger G. Cunningham literally chased half the gallery home at 10 o'clock when he announced that he would read the garbage ordinance that it was only four pages of single spaced typewriting long. Storm sewers were ordered in on Dodge street, River to Franklin and on Pleasant street from River to Franklin. Bids for the laying of cement walks were submitted by B. P. Crossman, Tyler and Schuman and G. D. Cannon. Crossman was the lowest bid at a question arose to whether or not Mr. Crossman had equipment to do the great amount of work needed and whether cement was to be brought in from outside the city. The question was sidetracked and left for further discussion two weeks hence. Crossman bid 1.00 per square yard for extra fillings and excavations and 1.14 square yard for cement walks; Tyler and Schuman were next lowest, $1.20 for excavations and 1.25 for walks. Cannon sought $1.00 for excavations and fillings and $1.50 for the laying of walks. The New Gas Co. asked permission to hang a gas main in the under ground structure of the Racine street bridge. The matter was referred to City Engineer C. V. Kerch. Reported danger of losing the local Labor of Bureau caused the council to take immediate steps for the retention of the employment agency. A new secretary to succeed Frank Schmitt, resigned, has not been appointed as yet. The new garbage ordinance got by without discussion. The council is all set up on official problems having had the matter before it nearly every meeting of the past five weeks, and there were six of them.

SENIORS BEAT 'FRESH' IN INTERCLASS GAME

In the first game of the interclass baseball contests held yesterday, the senior nine won from the freshmen bunch by a 14 to 7 score. Although outplayed at nearly every stage of the game the younger class men fought gamely throughout and kept the seniors from scoring more than one run. The lineup of yesterday's game follows. Freshmen: Catcher, Seniors: Roy Dawson. First base, Seniors: Allen Gillespie. Second base, Seniors: Clark Mantheil. Third base, Seniors: Sprackling. Shortstop, Seniors: Schmitt. ### CITY TO HAVE CLINIC TO FIGHT PREVALENT VENEREAL DISEASES

Ten to twenty per cent of insanity is due to syphilis. Locomotor ataxia, a very large percentage of it, is caused by it. Do you know that from 15 to 20 per cent of the blindness in the State School for the Blind here is due to venereal infection? It is a fact. Syphilis kills one in every 100; cripples one in every 100.

Dr. Henika explained that the federal aid consisted of $1,000,000 annually for the next three years, going to states which would make appropriations and carry on the fight through its official health agencies. He touched lightly on the educational features as used by the medical corps of the army but gave facts to show that public health is a matter of the reduction of the percentage from 12 to one. "We must have the cooperation of everybody, not alone doctors and surgeons, but lawyers, preachers, business men and every citizen at large to make this matter of the extermination of venereal diseases a success. It behooves every one to make stronger our coming generations by eradicating the life and honor of the greatest nation God ever placed on earth." Dr. Henika spoke briefly of the establishing of the clinic and explained that if the city furnished an aid to the state expert, quarters, light and heat and a part time clerk the state

Playing The Player Is a Man's Game

Do You Agree With Us? You may come home and sit down to listen to your wife or daughter play the piano. But where is your mind? Nine times out of ten it is still at your office or your shop or your foundry, wherever you have spent your day in labor. Why Not Play it Yourself? You cannot play the player piano and have your mind anywhere else but on the music. You fairly drink in the melody when you play it yourself. You play it fast, you play it slow. You play it softly. You play it loudly. You accent here, you accent there. You play to suit your own mood and the result is relaxation from the daily grind of life. It is stimulating and inspiring. We invite you to try this out at THE MUSIC SHOP. We offer for your selection in Player Pianos GULBRANSEN, LYON & HEALY, BUSH & GERTS, SCHUMAN. ## NEWS ABOUT FOLKS

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Tripp, Covena, Cal., are in Janesville to visit at the home of J. P. Janes and family, 1508 Highland avenue. Mr. Tripp was an old soldier in the civil war, having served four years in the 27th Ohio regiment. This is his first visit to Wisconsin. Mrs. Tripp is a sister of Mr. Janes. She went west 39 years ago, to Colorado, and a few years later to California, where she now makes her home. She was married to her first husband, J. Preston, June 15, 1880, and they had three children, J. P., Carl, and Mary H. They were married. It was a double wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Tripp expect to spend the week in Janesville to celebrate their 50th anniversary, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hough, 100 St. Lawrence street, entertained last evening. Their guests were the members of the Delta Psi Delta society of Beloit college, and their Beloit college friends. About 50 guests came up for a special invitation to attend. The evening was served during the evening, on the second floor, and refreshments at small tables on the first floor. The music for the dance was furnished by the Hatch orchestra—horn, violin and piano. The guests were received in a beautiful old rose and gold ballroom of the Hough home. The affair proved most delightful.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sullivan, Galena street, gave a Sunday dinner in honor of her son, William Sullivan, who recently came home from France. The dinner was served at the national colors. A four-course dinner was served. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Craft, Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coen and children, Milwaukee.

Serget Raymond Walter was given a surprise party Friday evening. He has recently arrived home from overseas. He received his discharge on Friday. About 15 friends and relatives attended. They brought their supper with them. It was served at ten o'clock.

The A. R. R. will hold their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. C. S. Putnam, 404 St. Lawrence avenue, on Monday, May 13. A one o'clock luncheon will be served. A large attendance is desired, as election of officers will take place. Please telephone early as possible and oblige the committee.

The Anita club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Margaret Broadon, 1014 Wall street. Dancing filled the evening. At 10:30 a lunch was served. The affair was much enjoyed by all that attended.

Miss Ann Sullivan, Galena street, entertained Monday evening at a 6:30 dinner. It was given in honor of her brother, William Sullivan. Covers were laid for 15. The table decorations were most sweet and ferns. During the evening William told of some of his experiences in France, while he was in service.

The Onawah club will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Roy A. Church, North Oak Hill avenue. Music and games will fill the time. Mrs. Church will serve a lunch at the close of the evening.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

PAVING CONTRACTORS CALLED IN TO REPAIR OAKLAND AVENUE

Brown and Connors, Janesville contractors who did the Oakland avenue paving job three years ago, and their bondsmen, are held accountable for the repair needed on that thoroughfare and the city council last night unanimously approved in the arm to do the work in fulfillment of their contract. Alderman Ensign H. Ransom and Lawrence J. Cronin, third ward aldermen, charged to investigate bad conditions in the pavement of the street, reported by David Holmes, made their reply to the council last night.

The third ward aldermen were surety firm for the repairs declared needed on the streets. According to the contract under which the job was done, Brown and Connors are required to keep the street in repair for a period of three years after the acceptance of the job by the city. This acceptance was made Dec. 5, 1916.

Investigate Defects. Alderman Ransom and Cronin found the defective condition of the road being caused by the wearing out of asphalt and the stone chips imbedded in it. This condition, the report said, was evidently due to the lack of sufficient stone screening during the early process of hardening under traffic.

In full the report was as follows: "We, the undersigned aldermen from the Third ward to whom was referred the communication of Mr. J. H. Ransom with reference to the condition of the paving on Oakland avenue, would respectfully report that we have made the investigation as to the condition referred to and find that said street was paved with asphalt macadam during the summer of 1916, with John Brown and Charles J. Connors; that said pavement was constructed under a three year guarantee clause, a copy of which is herewith attached which requires that the contractors keep and maintain the pavement in good order three years from and after the completion and acceptance of the work; that the acceptance of the works was made on Dec. 5, 1916; that the bond of the said work was furnished by the United States Fidelity and Guarantee company, Baltimore.

Lacked Stone Screening. This would leave the responsibility for the maintenance of the pavement, ordinary wear excepted, in the hands of the contractors, or their bondsmen. The defects in the pavement referred to by Mr. Holmes seem to have been occasioned by the picking up of asphalt and stone chips used in finishing the surface of the pavement, due evidently to the lack of sufficient stone screening during the process of hardening of the surface under traffic. We are informed that the contractors, or their bondsmen, were called to this condition, but they have failed to remedy the defects. We would therefore recommend that the Board of Public Works cause a notice to be served on said contractor and bondsmen to remedy such defects in the manner provided for in said contract."

Evansville News

Evansville, May 6.—The campaign for the fifth liberty loan is progressing favorably in the vicinity of Evansville. When the reports closed for the city of Evansville last evening the fund was $76,400. This leaves but $23,600 to be subscribed. It has not been found necessary to call the committee to make a canvass of the city. Throughout some of the townships the work lags. The township of Union has a quota of $30,000 to meet, with over $16,000 already subscribed. Porter has also reached the half way mark, but in Magnolia the returns are not so promising.

Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Holmes and daughter, Martha, left for their summer home at Brill this week. Henry Holt and sister, Miss Mary Holt, are spending the Holmes residence here during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Wood have returned to their home in Sparta, after a visit of two weeks with their sister, Mrs. M. Carpenter, and family.

Miss May Ottosen spent Sunday at her home in Brooklyn.

Donald Appell was a Janesville visitor Sunday.

Miss Minnie Leeder has moved into the Maynard residence, Maple avenue. Clayton Weaver, Janesville, spent Sunday at his home here.

The Woman's Literary club held a special meeting at the home of its president, Mrs. V. A. Astell, last evening. Reports of delegates to the recent federation meeting were given. It was also voted to provide a fund for a war orphan for this year. Refreshments were served and the meeting proved to be an exceptionally pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hefel motored to Janesville Saturday.

Dr. Heigesen was an Oregon visitor Monday.

William Topp has returned to his home in Oregon, after a pleasant visit with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Morgan have moved into the residence recently vacated by Arthur Devine.

Miss Zora Howard, Madison, spent Sunday at her home in Evansville.

Charles Copeland is enjoying a few days at his home here from a business trip on the road.

Miss Madeline Apfel, spent the week-end with Miss Mabel Blum, states Fidelity and Guarantee company, Baltimore.

Whitewater News

Whitewater, May 6.—The Woman's Federation at its meeting at the library yesterday elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. E. B. Janes; vice president, Mrs. James Walde; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. E. Hill. Following the election, Dr. Thompson of the state board of health gave a talk on "Health and Hygiene."

Mrs. C. Holt, State street, received a telegram from New York, April 16, which read: "Coming home. Wire $100. Rush. Carl Holt." Shortly before this a letter had been received from their son, Carl, who had landed in New York from overseas, stating that he would be home soon and that he had plenty of money in a bank in New York. Nevertheless, the Holt family wired the $100 to the address given. Not receiving a reply, Mrs. Holt telegraphed Carl, asking if he had received the money. He replied that he had not wired for any, and it was the work of a swindler.

Mrs. A. D. Didrikson spent Saturday in Beloit.

Miss Marion Reed spent the week-end in Edgerton.

Harvey Ridge was home from Elk-horn over Sunday.

Miss Iva Nelson spent the week-end in Palmyra.

Henry Anderson, South Milwaukee, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson.

A GREAT ECONOMY BECAUSE OF EXTRA WEAR

"After a trip to Kilauea, the active volcano of Hawaii, my Neolin-soled shoes were the only ones not absolutely ruined. Many in our party wore hob-nailed boots," said Miss Jean P. Lane of Seattle, Washington.

The sharp jagged lava of Kilauea cuts an ordinary sole to pieces quickly. That Neolin Soles stood the test but emphasizes their toughness and durability. These qualities are built into them by a scientific process. Women—and men and children, too—who are hard on shoes should buy them with Neolin Soles. They come in many styles, and because of the extra wear they give, are a great economy.

And any repairman will re-sole your worn shoes with Neolin Soles, which are flexible and water-proof, as well as long-wearing. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels, guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

NO MORE LENIENCY.

Janesville was the scene of another wild drunken orgy, Saturday night.
Soldiers from Camp Grant got liquor without trouble. Bootleggers worked without hindrance except in one case when the police nabbed a salesman who plied his trade too openly. Girls in their teens flirted with men in uniforms and painted women who took advantage of Janesville's lack of regulation, piled their trade on the streets.

This is not a narrative which will bring credit to this city. It is deplorable that it has to be thrown broadcast to the world. But the conditions which have been almost unbearable for weeks are growing worse. Something must be done at once to stop it.

Municipal Judge Maxfield declares that leniency to soldiers and supporters of war activities is a thing of the past as far as he is concerned. He has favored the man who has served his country either as a fighting man or one who has helped furnish the munitions of war. He must be commended for his stand. He has done all he could, but the trouble he has received is shown by the situation which resulted last Saturday night and two weeks ago. It is evident that the word has been passed around that Janesville is a good town to come to for a wild time and those from neighboring dry spots have taken advantage of the court's effort to show consideration for patriots.

But soldiers who will come to Janesville or go to any other city and get drunk—violate the law as well as disobey the regulations of the war department—should be shown no consideration. Neither has a man who buys Liberty bonds any more right to transgress the laws of the community than one who does not. Both are yellow.

Judge Maxfield is right in his assertion that hereafter men who come to this city to get drunk and misbehave in a manner that takes them to the police station and finally to court, shall be shown no mercy.

The police department has done as well as it can under the circumstances. It has made arrests when drunks got too obnoxious. The department's most difficult task has been on Saturday night when the city has been filled with soldiers on leave and women who have come here to ply their dishonorable trade.
If they are not able to take care of the situation at these times, Mayor Welsh or other officials should take immediate steps to provide special details for these occasions.

Because street-walkers have been allowed to become more bold and have been allowed to increase in numbers, it is almost unsafe for a decent woman to walk along the streets unaccompanied when the town is crowded with soldiers and others who come here to make a night of it.

The decent element of Janesville will not stand for such a condition.
If the city officials and the police department cannot cope with the situation, there are enough clean, red-blooded men in the city who will quickly volunteer to keep the streets safe for their wives and their daughters.

This is the second time in two weeks that Janesville has had to be held up to the public gaze as a place of debauchery. Will it continue to maintain the reputation that it has gained or will those in authority carry out their promises and give those who despoil our community a lesson which they will not forget?

THE WAR VETERANS.

There seems to be some criticism of the delegates selected by the local American War Veterans to attend the national convention at St. Louis, this month. Communications have been published in the Gazette, setting forth that men who have seen service overseas should have the honor of serving the local organization at the national meeting. No fault can be found with the criticism. The men who have borne the brunt of battle should be shown the first consideration and every honor that can be bestowed should be given them. But this is the situation as it appears now. The local chapter has been organized but a short time. Not more than three meetings have been held. The last two were not well attended. It was necessary for the selection of delegates to be made on short notice, as the convention is but a few days away. The delegates were selected by those who attended the last meeting.
The choice was made by a majority of those who attended the meeting and who are eligible to say who shall represent the local. It is evident that no attempt has been made to not give the wounded heroes or the men who were fortunate to go overseas full representation.

Without going into the qualifications of any members of the American War Veterans, it should be remembered that there were thousands of men who chafed under the restraint of being compelled to remain in the country while their comrades in arms had their chance to go to the battle line. Many a man, member of the veterans' association, enlisted long before some of the boys were called through the conscription act and simply because they did not get across the water and into the fight does not brand him as not being as patriotic as the man who was fortunate to take part in the war.

The American War Veterans' organization is composed of men who served in the war, whether they got to France or whether they prepared to go by training on this side. No distinction should be drawn.

If it is allowed to be drawn there will be continuous wrangling in the organization. The promoters of the organization are doing everything possible to make the association representative of all the men who served the 36m during the war. The characters are being held open so that every man who obtains an honorable discharge will be allowed to enter as a charter member. Democracy is the keynote of the organization.

It would seem desirable not to judge too quickly the action of the local organization.

FUME AND THE TYROL.

The insincerity of Italy's claim to Fiume on the principle of self-determination is revealed in her own present demands for territory which is peopled almost wholly by an alien race unwilling to pay allegiance to the Italian flag.

The United States has sympathized with Italy's ambitions to reclaim Italian lands that were under the Austro-Hungarian yoke, and American boys have died in Italy to help make this age-old Italian dream a reality. But America has no sympathy with the purely imperialistic ambitions of any government. We cannot, therefore, approve the Italian claim to territory beyond the southern ridge of the Alps in the Trentino.
North of this natural border, which is also the racial and linguistic border of Italy, Italians are in an insignificant minority, yet Italy wants to plant her flag as far north as the Brenner, thereby cutting the Tyrol in two and forcing half of the unwilling Tyrolese under the yoke of Italy. And among the 27,000 Tyrolese whom Italy seems determined to deprive of their national unity there live only about 5,000 Italians.

If Italy had consistently shown a sincere attachment to the self-determination principle, it is possible that some little sympathy might be worked up for her in her ambition to annex Fiume, which might be described as a Latin island in a Slav sea. But in view of all the facts at hand, we are forced to the reluctant conclusion that Italy does not want Fiume primarily because there are many Italians in that city, but chiefly for the reason that if Italy gets Fiume, Jugo-Slavia thus deprived of a seaport, will be still born and therefore not a powerful neighbor of Italy either internationally or commercially. To such sordid ambitions America can never lend her approval.

Fred Schmitt, who resigned as secretary of the federal employment service to engage in business for himself, has filled his office in a manner which has won approval, not only of the government, but of the public. He has been courteous and keen to carry out the wishes of the U. S. It was through his administration of the affairs of the local office that it stood so well among the bureaus of the state.

Belgium again has shown her worth as a nation whose ambition is to be fair. Her assurance that she will accept the peace terms although some of them do not encourage her lends strength to the universal belief that she is a game little country ready to aid in making the world free from autocracy.

Announcement that the 32nd division—our own boys who so gloriously acquitted themselves on the battlefields of France, have arrived safely in New York, made many a mother's heart leap with joy. No event in mother's and dad's life will be as momentous as when her warrior son again steps into their waiting arms.
Let's give them a welcome that they will never forget.

We realize that it is not good taste to complain about things, but weather like we have been experiencing for two weeks does not leave a good taste and we again arise to remark that thus far, this has been a punk spring.

LIFE'S GARDEN.

My dream is of a garden where perfect roses bloom.

Where peonies and columbine send forth their sweet perfume.

I fancy I can see the yard as I would have it be.

Aglow with life and loveliness, but fancy I heard I lying.

For notwithstanding all the care and labor I bestow

Among the roses day by day the weeds contrive to grow.

I battle with the stubborn soil with each returning spring.

New hope of conquering the tares unto the last I bring.

I have in mind a garden fair that I shall some day own

Where only beauty shall be found and nothing rank is known.

And yet despite my love of joy and all my visions fair

I find the burdock springing up and chisties growing there.

How like a garden is my life, how different from my dreams

Of what I hope to make of it, is that it really seems.

I pledge myself to what is best, in fancy I behold I lying.

A work that I shall smile to see at last when I am old.

And yet the dream is far away for in among the weeds

That shine like roses, I can see the tangled growth of weeds.

WAR ORPHAN WRITES TO MRS. H. M. HANSON

The following letter from a French war orphan was received by Mrs.
Henry Hanson, 526 North Washington street:

"Nantes, April 9, 1919.
"Dear Madam: I just received your letter of March with great pleasure, but being unable to read it I was obliged to have recourse to a kind friend who translated it and read it for me, and she is willing to do the same for the future.

"I can't forget that it has been through the American intervention that we owe our own salvation. How many human lives have been saved through your great sacrifice, and how numberless are the families who, thinking the arrival of the American soldiers, received their support, together with her troops.

"America has sent us war material.
Our city, already impoverished, has increased. The autos of the army are crossing it continually, and a supplementary railroad has been constructed exclusively for the American engines and cars transporting war material.

"A few words now regarding our city. Nantes is a city of about 200,000 inhabitants. Our beautiful river, the Loire, divides it in four parts. The harbor is very important and receives boats from all countries. Our commerce is good, but our industry is more considerable.

"There are four shipyards, more than fifteen factories for the fabrication of conserve, and a big number of other factories. We have beautiful monuments, a park, and a stadium seventy meters high. Our climate is maritime and in winter time rain is frequent.

"Everyone in our family is well, except the children. I have three.
Miller's Antiseptic Oil, Known As
SNAKE OIL

Positively Relieves Pain in Few Minutes

Try it right now for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, sore, stiff and swollen joints, pains in the head, back and limbs, corns, bunions, etc. After one application pain usually disappears as if by magic.

A new remedy used internally and externally for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Influenza, Sore Throat, Diphtheria and Tonsillitis.

This Oil is conceded to be the most penetrating remedy known, its prompt and immediate effect in relieving pain is due to the fact that it penetrates the affected parts at once, as an illustration, pour ten drops on the thickest piece of seal leather and it will penetrate this substance through and through in three minutes.

they are made in one piece, and can be slipped on and off easily—are loose and comfortable—yet fit and look well.

HEALTHFUL — No tight or elastic bands to stop the free circulation of the blood and retard freedom of motion.

ECONOMICAL — An inexpensive garment — easily washed — saves the more expensive clothes. So well made that they are outgrown long before they are worn out.

SIZES—1 to 8 years.
PRICE—$1.50.

News Notes from Movieland

BY DAISY DEAN

Did you ever see a petite little miss in the old Biograph days named Viola Smith? Well, do you recognize her now under the name Viola Vale? The should, for the two are one and the same little lady. Miss Vale started her career in amateur theatricals in Rochester. Then she played in stock companies for a time and her first experience in pictures was with Biograph, under the great David Wark Griffith, of course. After a month of playing atmosphere parts, she was given a real part, where she might wear a "velvet gown with a train," a feathered hat and everything.

Since then Miss Vale has played short reel pictures for Biograph, Universal and more recently she has played with Bill Hart, Sessue Hayakawa and William Russell. For a time she interpreted mountain maid roles and being a pure Latin type she could easily make up for Spanish, Italian, French and gypsy roles.

Her ambition, she confesses, is to play "Madame Butterfly" with a real Japanese company and to play "Lorna Doone." Her inspiration is Mr. Hayakawa. She says she "wants to learn to act inside the way he does."

GRITTY TO GO ABROAD.
D. W. Griffith is again going abroad. In the early fall Mr. Griffith will start on an extended European trip which will take him into France, Belgium, Russia and Italy. The producer will be absent from this country for at least a year and will take his own cameraman and players to the other side. About July 1, Mr. Griffith will commence a group of pictures in the East. He leaves Los Angeles the 10th of May for New York, and will visit Mexico on his way to the metropolis.

It was recently learned that he had made a picture called "Brother Uncle Sam," destined by the government for exhibition in Russia, showing American customs, education, ideals, the cutting of a broken blossom. The production which was adapted from Thomas Burke's "Limehouse Nights" story, "The Chink and the Child."

WHAT THEY ARE DOING.
Harry Dupp and Neva Field are being co-starred by Christie.

Don Wilson and Neva Garber are working on a new one-reel comedy called "Caught in the Draft."

Margie Elliott Hicks plays a little girl in "The Right to Happiness." Miss Hicks is 10 years old. Winter Hall is cast in the same production.

Josie Sedgwick will support Pete Morrison in his newest two-reel western.

FORTY YEARS AGO

The Janesville Daily Gazette, May 7, 1879, Janesville council, Select Tempers No. 4, held an interesting meeting at Temple hall last evening, at which time the newly elected officers were installed by S. C. Buchanan, chief of the Grand Council of Wisconsin, assisted by A. D. Wickham, acting past grand worthy templar, and George Osgood, acting grand worthy usher. After the installation, J. D. Kizer, past chief of council, was elected a delegate to the Grand Council, which meets at Racine in June. The following is a correct list of the officers installed:

Chief of council, James Clark; senior of council, M. S. Prichard; junior of council, John H. Field; manager of council, J. M. Matheson; deputy manager of council, George Skinner; chaplain, Rev. T. P. Sawin; recorder, L. D. Jerome; protector, J. Van Frankin; watch, Levi Canfield.

Rev. Father Blum, Brighton; Rev. Father Zinner, Geneva, Lake, and Rev. Father Kiser, Ashton, arrived in the city this afternoon to take part in the papal jubilee now in progress at St. Mary's Catholic church.

The trustees of the institute for the blind held their annual meeting today. The report shows the school well managed and in good condition. The following were elected officers of the board for the coming year: President, H. Bowen, Brookfield; treasurer, W. T. Van Kirk, Janesville; secretary, H. S. Hogsboom, Janesville; physician, Dr. E. ## Tales of the Friendly Forest

Oh, the grasshopper sat in the Luckymobile.
With his legs up under his chin.
And he laughed and was gay as they rode on their way.
By the light of the big diamond pin.
That the old rabbit wore in his big red cravat.
Under the shade of his old stove-pipe hat.

Now let me see. If I remember right, the grasshopper had promised to show Uncle Lucky and Billy Bunny a beautiful clover patch where the clover tops grew red, white and blue and were covered with dew, tra la loo.

"Turn to your right," said the grasshopper, so the old gentleman rabbit did as he was told and by and by, after a while, when it began to grow dark they came to a field.

"Here we are," said the grasshopper, and he hopped out of the Luckymobile and stretched his long legs, for they were dreadfully cramped. You know, sitting in the Luckymobile.

Well, as soon as Billy Bunny had tied the Luckymobile to a rail in the old snake fence, he and Uncle Lucky hopped in the field. And just then the big round yellow moon came up in the sky and shone right down on the clover tops. And Oh my! weren't they red and white and blue. So the little rabbits started in to have a feast, while the grasshopper sat on the top rail of the old snake fence and kept watch.

Oh, the moon shines bright
On the pretty clover field.
All covered with clover tops so sweet,
But Oh dear! and oh my!
There comes a whine the sky.
Robber Hawk with hooks upon his feet.

Well, sir! If that grasshopper hadn't sung this little song it would have been the end of those two dear little rabbits. But when they heard the last two lines, they didn't stop to eat another clover top. No, sir! They ran like the wind and hid in a hollow stump close by they hopped as quick as a ten-legged fly. And that's pretty quick, they tell me, that is, if you've ever tried to use a fly-swatter.

And the grasshopper crawled into a hole in the fence and then peeked out to see what Robber Hawk was about. There he was strutting around that hollow stump and saying:

Come out of that stump
Or I'll tear it in two.
Or I'll split it in half;
Don't you see what I do.
I feel just as mad as the crown prince,
I guess.
When he found at the Marne he had made such a mess."

"I won't come out," said Uncle Lucky.

"Neither will I," said Billy Bunny, but the grasshopper didn't say a word. He just took out his dangle and commenced to play. And you know how a grasshopper fiddles, don't you. He scrapes his left hind leg up and down under his wing.

"Botheration," said old Robber Hawk, and then he flew away, for he knew it was useless for him to stay and wait for those two little rabbits to jump out of that friendly hollow stump.

And in the next story, if you'll promise to commence saving up your money to buy another Victory bond, I'll tell you some more about Billy Bunny and his friends.

Prince of Graustark," Etc.

Copyright by Dodd, Mead and Co., Inc.

"Thank God! they're off my mind at last," he cried. "That is the first good, long breath I've had in a week. No, not now. It's a long story and I can't tell it in Fifth Avenue. It would be extremely annoying to have both of you die of heart failure with all these people looking on."

He felt her hand on his arm, and knew that she was looking at him with wide, incredulous eyes, but he faced straight ahead. He was terribly afraid that the girl beside him was preparing to shed tears of joy and relief. He could feel her searching in her jacket pocket for a handkerchief.

Mrs. Courtney was not only curious but apprehensive. She hadn't the faintest idea who Miss Cameron was, nor where her brother had picked her up. But she saw at a glance that she was lovely, and her soul was filled with strange misgivings. She was like all sisters who have pet bachelor brothers. She hoped that poor Tom hadn't gone and made a fool of himself.

The few minutes' conversation she had with the stranger only served to increase her alarm. Miss Cameron's voice and smile—and her eyes!—were positively alluring.

She had had a night letter from Tom that morning in which he said that he was bringing a young lady friend down from the north—and would she meet them at the station and put her up for a couple of days? That was all she knew of the dazzling stranger up to the moment she saw her. Immediately after that she knew by intuition a great deal more about her than Tom could have told in volucres of correspondence. She knew, also, that Tom was lost forever!

Corns, Calluses Quit Quick!

Two Drops of "Gets-It" Will Do It.

of the corn too close to the quick? Ever pack up your toes with "contrabands" and plaster as though you were packing a glass vase for parcel post? Ever use greasy ointments that rub off on your stockings? Ever use silver tape that gets jerked off when you pull your stockings off? Kind of foolish, when 2 or 3 drops of "Gets-It" on any corn or callus gives it a quick, painless, peaceful, dead-sure removal. Why putter and suffer? "Gets-It" stops corn pain in 10 seconds. It kills, soothes and dries, even with corns. It's the only common-sense way, the only simple, easy to use, sure cure. It never fails. "Gets-It," the guaranteed, money-back cure, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mfr'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Janesville and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Smith Drug Co., E. J. Baker Drug Co., Scherer, Reliable Drug Co., Badger Drug Co., McCue & Buss, People's Drug Co., Red Cross Pharmacy.

DECIDES TO BE A LIVE ONE

Young Man Comes Back

One of our young men sure has come to the front in short order and his friends are at a loss to understand his untiring energy and ability to work and get results, where only a few weeks before he seemed to be all run down and almost a nervous wreck.

Questioned by a curious friend as to the cause of the sudden change, he said: "I sure was in bad shape and no one knew it better than I did. It had my gonorrhea for fair. I was all in and my gonorrhea shot to the place where I couldn't sleep a wink. One day I overheard a customer telling what Phosphated Iron had done for him and I could not get a supply quick enough."

"That's the whole story, just Phosphated Iron. My poor tired overworked nerves just seemed to be Phosphated Iron, the way they took hold of it, and say what a relief. I felt like a new man. Could sleep at night, and get on in the morning feeling like a two-year-old. Believe me, I had some appetite too, my weight increased rapidly, my face filled out and had the color of perfect health that only goes with pure blood, well fed with Iron."

"You can bet I am strong for Phosphated Iron. Everyone who tries it is a booster."

"Do you know even the doctors are prescribing it; trust them to get next to a good thing!"
Special Notice: To insure doctors and their patients getting the Genuine Phosphated Iron we have put in capsules only, so do not allow dealers to sell you pills or tablets.

PETEY DINK—CURE FOR ONE'S WILDNESS COMES HIGH.

"Now tell me," said the countess the instant they entered the Courtney apartment. She gripped both of his arms with her firm little hands and looked straight into his eyes, eagerly, hopefully. She had forgotten Mrs. Courtney's presence, she had not taken the time to remove her hat or jacket.

"Let's all sit down," said he. "My knees are unaccountably weak. Come along, Edie. Listen to the romance of my life."

And when the story was finished the countess took his hand in hers and held it to her cool cheek. The tears were still drowning her eyes.

"Oh, you poor dear! Was that why you grew so haggard and pale and hollow-eyed?"

"Partly," said he with great significance. "And you had them in your pack all the time? You—"

"I had Sprouse's most solemn word not to touch them for a week. He is the only man I feared. He is the only one who could have—"

"May I use your telephone, Mrs. Courtney?" cried she suddenly. She sprang to her feet, quivering with excitement. "Pray forgive me for being so ill-mannered, but I—must call up one or two people at once. They are my friends. You will understand, I am sure."

Barnes was pacing the floor nervously when his sister returned after conducting her new guest to the room prepared for her. The countess was at the telephone before the door closed behind her hostess.

"I wish you had been a little more explicit in your telegram, Tom," she said peevishly. "If I had known who she is I wouldn't have put her in that room. Now I shall have to move Aunt Kate back into it tomorrow and give Miss Cameron the big one at the end of the hall." Which goes to prove that Tom's sister was a bit of a scold in her way. "Stop walking like that and come here." She faced him accusingly. "Have you told all there is to tell, sir?"

"Can't you see for yourself, Edie, that I'm in love with her? Desperate, horribly, madly in love with her. Don't giggle like that! I couldn't have told you while she was present, could I?"

"That isn't what I want to know. Is she in love with you? That's what I'm after."

"Yes," said he, but frowned anxiously.

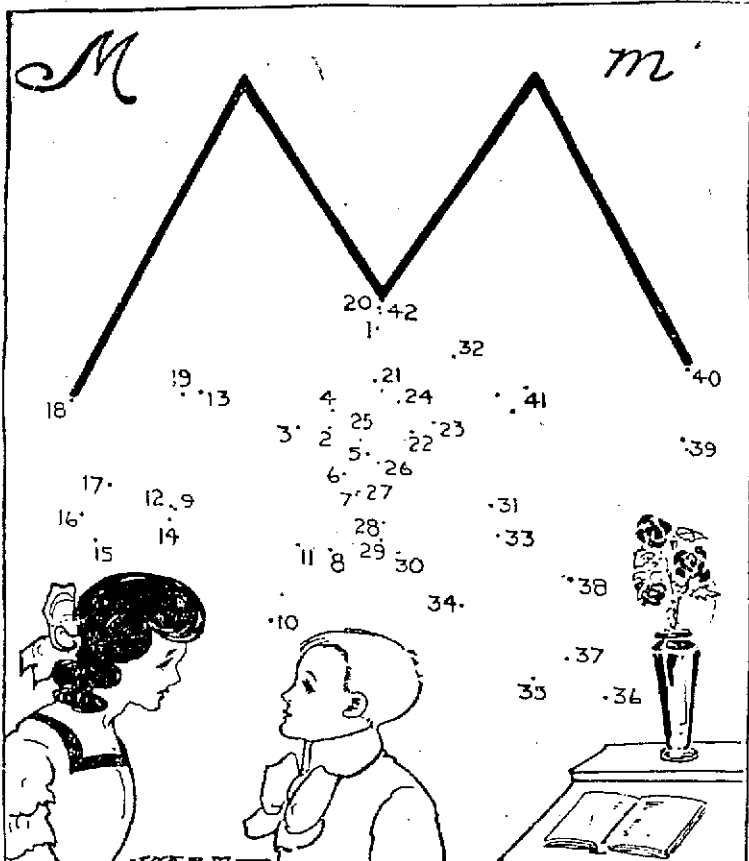

"She is perfectly adorable," said she, and was at once aware of a guilty, nagging impression that she would not have said it to him half an hour earlier for anything in the world.

She was strangely white and subdued when she rejoined them later on. She had removed her hat. The other women saw nothing but the wealth of sun-kissed hair that rippled. Barnes went forward to meet her, filled with a sudden apprehension.

"What is it? You are pale and—what have you heard?"

She stopped and looked searchingly into his eyes. A warm flush rose to her cheeks; her own eyes grew soft and tender and wistful.

"They all believe that the war will last two or three years longer," she said huskily. "I cannot go back to my own country till it is all over. They implore me to remain here with them until—until my fortunes are mended." She turned to Mrs. Courtney.

THE DOT DRAWING CLASS

"I have to go out of the room for a few minutes," said the Dot Drawing teacher, "and while I am gone I want you to draw out the dot drawing. The letter 'M' I call the matri-monial letter because it is the beginning of marriage. It will take both of you to make this drawing a success, and I want to see that it is finished when I come back. And you must be very careful and make your lines straight and clean, and if you do, I will find something that rhymes with Miss, such as clean, and if you do, I will find something that rhymes with Miss, such as clean, and if you do, I will find something that rhymes with Miss, such as clean."

ney. I am very, very poor. They have taken everything. I—I fear I shall have to accept this kind, generous proffer of a—"

her voice shook slightly. "—of a home with my friends until the Huns are driven out."

Barnes' silence was more eloquent than words. Her eyes fell. Mrs. Courtney expressed the hope that Miss Cameron would condescend to accept the hospitality of her home until plans for the future were definitely fixed.

There was a sign that the object of her concern had given a thought to what she was saying.

"You are so very kind," stammered the countess. "But I cannot think of imposing upon—"

"Leave it to me, Edie," said Barnes gently, and, laying his hand upon his sister's arm, he led her from the room. Then he came swiftly back to the outstretched arms of the exile.

"A very brief New York engagement," he whispered in her ear, he knew not how long afterward. Her head was pressed against his shoulder, her eyes were closed, her lips parted in the ecstasy of passion.

"Yes," she breathed, so faintly that he barely heard the strongest word ever put into the language of man.

Half an hour later he was speeding down the avenue in a taxi. His blood was singing, his heart was bursting with joy—his head was light, for the feel of her was still in his arms, the voice of her in his enraptured ears.

He was hurrying homeward to the "diggings" he was soon to desert for ever. He was to spend the night at his sister's apartment. When he issued forth from his "diggings" at half past seven he was attired in evening clothes, and there was not a woman in all New York, young or old, who would have denied him a second glance.

Dinner Stories

"Herbert," said an anxious mother, "your uncle will be here to dinner today, and you must have your face washed."

"Yes, ma, but s'posed he don't come? What then?"

It was after midnight, but there were still several men in the smoking room of the club. The conversation turned upon hair-breadth escapes. A word, a quick feeling pervaded the atmosphere as one man described the dangers he had been through.

"That's all very well," broke in a strong-featured individual, "but for real awe and uncanny terror, give me the roaring of a lion or the sharp trumpeting of the elephant, or the howl of the wolf, or the low, menacing hiss of the slow creeping serpent, borne on the still night air as you lie there weak and helpless as a new-born babe."

They looked at him with great interest. "Have you really slept in the jungle and heard these sounds?" asked one of the listeners.

"Well, not exactly," he replied as he edged toward the door, "but I sleep with my windows open and my that is close to the zoological gardens."

"Papa, where is Atoms?"
"Atoms? I don't know, boy. You mean Athens, probably."

"No, I mean Atoms—the place where everything is blown to."

Greek Demon and Masked Marvel Grapple Tonight

By George McManus.

WRESTLING'S FATE HANGS IN BALANCE

(BY KID RIFF)

The fate of wrestling in Janesville is at stake tonight. Young Jimmie Demetral, who has wrestled twice before a handful of fans, is a firm believer in the old adage, "Three times and out." If there is not a turn-out at the Myers tonight then the sport is doomed, so far as the Greek is concerned.

Jimmie hit town yesterday afternoon. The Masked Marvel (Max Henderson) is expected to arrive today. A $30 forfeit has been posted and a little side-bet between the two sharks is listed. Outside of that there seems to be but little betting.

Demetral is well groomed for the fray. He has been putting in some extra ticks of training during the past week, has the rough spots all polished.

YOUNG DEMETRAL.

and, and is ready to give the Marvel a tough time of it.

Although he of the black mask rules a slight favorite because of his past performance in the east, the Greek is conceded an even chance by most fans. He is no particular slouch at the game himself when his record is looked over. He has met and defeated the best the middle west has to offer under 155 pounds during the past year.

He Loves the Marvel

He has no grudge against the Marvel—at least he didn't have until yesterday afternoon when he was told that the Marvel's manager had declared, "We are coming to Janesville Tuesday night to give that Greek the worst trouncing he ever had in his life."

In the semi-windup, Young Schard, Detroit hopeful, will lay his mitts on Earl Barker, local product, in a finish match. Although neither is an experienced wrestler, both are pretty clever and this bout should be a good one.

Demetral announced this morning that he had Josie Prox and Young Green, a Chicago pug, lined up to give a four-round boxing exhibition. Both are reputed to be handy with the gloves. He is also making arrangements to put on another boxing match tonight to attract the pugilistic fans.

TOLEDO CHOSEN FOR JESS-JACK BATTLE

New York, May 5.—It was officially announced last night by Tex Rickard that Toledo, O., has been selected as the scene of the battle between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey for the world's heavyweight title.

The champion and challenger will meet in a twelve-round bout and in case there is no knockout a referee's decision will be given. The referee will be picked later. The date of the battle is July 4, and the men will enter the ring at 8 o'clock.

Rickard furnished the information that Bayview Park would be transformed into an arena where between 10,000 and 50,000 spectators can be accommodated. In addition there will be room enough to park thousands of automobiles.

BALL PLAYERS MEET TOMORROW EVENING

Every member of the Janesville city baseball team, past, present and prospective, is requested by James A. Murphree, new team manager, to report at the Gazette office tomorrow evening at 7:30.

The meeting is called for the purpose of recognizing the nine, arranging for practices and games, and straightening out financial difficulties. Every man who wants to compete for a place on the team should be present.

JUNIOR ALL-STARS WALLOP SHOPIERE

The Junior All-Stars are keeping up their record of victories. They added another beautiful win to the string Sunday, when they walloped the Shopiere nine 28 to 8, after nine innings of muddy ball. The Shopiere crew played in boots and had no luck whatsoever.

Dawson, performing on the mound for the winners, struck out 12 men and allowed only 6 hits. Hammond and Knipschield twirling for the losers, allowed 22 hits and struck out 8 men. J. Culich was the heavy hitter of the day, getting four hits in seven trips to the platter, two of them good for two sacks. Zahn and Slightam rapped out one double apiece. Werriek got a home-run for Shopiere in the ninth inning.

COLTS HAVE THREE BIG GAMES THIS WEEK

The challenge recently flung out to Beloit especially and to the southern part of the state in general by Clauson's Colts, has been answered. Three heavy battles are on the docket for the Colts this week beginning at the East Side alleys tomorrow night and continuing through Friday.

The games arranged are: Wright's Tigers at Beloit, Wednesday night; Briggs' Pick, Janesville, Thursday night; Fairies No. 1, Beloit, here Friday night.

The Colts have made good their challenge to all teams so far and are out to show the Gateway City pinsters some regular bowling.

New Players Strengthen Tiger Team

The addition of Shorten and Eddie Ainsmith to the Detroit outfit gives the team more of a wallop than the personal strength of these players would indicate. With Shorten for his outfield, Hughie is able to play Heilmann at first without weakening his garden trio. Heilmann is a rattling good first sacker and a slugger. Eddie Ainsmith, behind the bat, ought to get better results out of the Tiger hurlers and be of material aid to the youngsters, including Howard Ehmke. This finger is booked to shine.

T. M. Harper lost a valuable yearling with black leg last week.

HITS

JOHNNY LAVAN TO QUIT GAME
St. Louis, May 5.—Johnny Lavan, shortstop with the Washington Americans when he entered the navy last year, has announced his retirement from baseball. Lavan, a physician, said he expected to receive his discharge soon and was eager to follow the medical profession. He is here on furlough.

WESTERGAARD IS CONFIDENT
Chicago, May 5.—Jess Westergaard yesterday demanded take all basis for his match with William Demetral at the Haymarket Theatre Friday night.

EUROPEAN SEASON OPENS
Paris, May 5.—The European baseball season has opened, the University of Paris having scheduled games with the University of Lyons, Nice, Dijon, Nancy and Toulouse, with a trip to England in June to play Oxford, Cambridge and Edinburgh. The University of Toulouse has four baseball teams and American aggregations are playing exhibition games in southeastern France. Ten thousand persons witnessed a game at Toulouse recently, while at Pau there were 5,000 present.

BADGERS WIN IN RALLY, 4-3
Bloomington, Ind., May 5.—Wisconsin yesterday evened up on Indiana, 4 to 3, for the defeat administered by the Hoosiers Saturday. The Hoosiers were ahead, 3 to 1, until the ninth, when the Badgers came up from behind.

MINISTERS PROTEST
Cincinnati, O., May 5.—The Ohio State Ministers' League, which met here yesterday, drew up a petition to Governor Cox asking him to refuse a permit for the Willard-Dempsey heavy-weight championship bout, scheduled at Toledo, July 4. Copies of the petition will be sent to all ministers in the state for their signatures.

JAIL BIRDS CAVORT
Sing Sing, N. Y., May 5.—Warden Edward V. Brophy of Sing Sing greatly pleased the prisoners there by announcing that they could open their baseball season. While the Mutual Welfare League band blares forth, Warden Brophy will pitch the first ball to open the season's schedule.

ZBYSKO DEMANDS CASH
Chicago, May 5.—If the Coliseum A. C. will guarantee a $15,000 house, 60 per cent of which shall be divided upon a basis of 75 per cent to the winner and 25 per cent to the loser, Wladimir Zbyzsko and Ed "Strangler" Lewis will meet in a flum match, best two in three falls, on May 19. Such was the proposition received Saturday by matchmaker Joe Coffey from Jack Curley, the Pole's manager. Billy Sandow, manager of Lewis, readily

SHARON

Sharon, May 5.—J. W. Hayes spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Evanston and Chicago.

Mrs. R. E. Rector went to Evansville Saturday to visit over Sunday with her daughter, Vivian, who teachers in the public school.

George Bonsall transacted business in Chicago Monday.

Mrs. Holman of New Hampshire is spending a few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. S. P. Ballard, who has been ill.

Mrs. W. H. Blodgett, Harvard, and daughter Mrs. Bernice Traversous of Iowa, visited over Sunday with Mrs. Ella Sikes.

Mr. Gerhardt, Chicago, national field secretary for the Lutheran Brotherhood movement spoke both morning and evening in the Lutheran church.

The W. R. C. held its regular meeting Saturday afternoon. Two new members were initiated, one name balloted on and two applications read. Refreshments were served by Mesdames D. O. Bubb, Kate Hyde, Mina Story, Ben Ayers and Miss Josie West. The W. R. C. is planning Memorial day exercises to be held in the opera house with a speaker from the Madison university.

Mrs. Ed. Bollinger's S. S. class of the Lutheran church was entertained at her home Saturday afternoon. The class is composed of 20 members and had an attendance contest, the losers entertaining the winners. The afternoon was spent in playing games, after which refreshments were served. All reported a fine time.

Miss Beale Roth, Harvard, spent Sunday with her mother and sister here.

Joe Bubb is agent for the Gazette in Sharon. He will be glad to deliver the paper to your door by 6 o'clock each evening. Call him up or see him to make sure that the Gazette comes to your home daily.

Road of Fights.

In the central part of China there is a very strange road, which leads to the famous Ming tombs. On each side of the avenue are huge figures of elephants, camels and giraffes, lions, etc. Each animal is carved out of a solid piece of stone. They are probably more than 500 years old.

Look Kindly Upon the "Luxury Tax" Keep on Buying

The Law Was Not Framed to DISCOURAGE Consumption, but to Raise NEEDED FUNDS for the GOVERNMENT!

The new tax, commonly known as the "LUXURY TAX," became operative May 1st, 1919.

In order to enable Washington to FINANCE THE WAR DEBT of $25,000,000,000, you are required to pay a TEN PERCENT TAX on that portion of the price of many articles ABOVE a MINIMUM price set by the government.

This new tax will not be NEARLY SO HEAVY as it looks on its face. You are required to pay the ten per cent ONLY ON THAT PART of the price of a taxable article which is ABOVE THE MINIMUM set by the government.

For example: The shirt on your back, bought on or after May 1st, will be tax-free if the price is $3. or under. But should you select a $5 shirt, you will pay to the STOREKEEPER a war tax of 10 per cent on the $2 excess above the dead line stipulated for the taxing of SHIRTS, which in this case would make the shirt cost $5, plus 20 cents war tax.

Another example: Your wife can buy a HAT costing as high as $15, without having to pay a tax. But should she select a hat priced at $25, she will be required to pay the storekeeper $25, plus 10 per cent on the excess above $15. She will, in this case, pay 10 per cent on $10, or $1, war tax.

Venders of wares taxable under the law are required to MAKE THEIR PRICE PLAIN—are obliged to let their customers KNOW exactly what portion of the price is WAR tax.

Department stores will post lists in conspicuous places for the enlightenment of shoppers.

Soft drinks, ice cream sodas, confections, chewing gum, all articles of jewelry, and many more things are taxable under this law.

It will hit every man, woman and child in the nation. Face it GLADLY.

Had the war lasted another six months, instead of 10 per cent you would have had to pay 20 per cent or more. Had the war been lost, the tax system about NOW would be simpler, for the HUN would have TAKEN ALL.

As the case stands, all existing forms of taxation taken into account, YOU are being taxed more mildly in America than in any other land on EARTH.

"There is a debt of service due from every man to his COUNTRY," said Thomas Jefferson, "a debt proportioned to the BOUNTIES which nature and fortune have measured out to him."

The United States is a MUTUAL institution, and all the people are PARTNERS—sharers in the nation's PROSPERITY, protected by its POWER. We must also expect to share in its RESPONSIBILITIES. This is right and FITTING! No true blue inhabitant of Janesville would have it otherwise! The LUXURY TAX will not be evaded by the men and women shoppers of America! It is the purpose of the government to realize some SIX BILLION DOLLARS by this tax—and if you refuse to buy taxed articles, to avoid paying the 10 per cent, you will be placing the mildest, kindest, most considerate government on the globe in a very bad HOLE—and you do not wish to do that!

Therefore, again we say, LOOK KINDLY upon the LUXURY TAX! Keep on BUYING!
